A message from Kellie Martin

Kellie Martin
AARDA National Spokesperson

beginning of my role as volunteer National Spokesperson for AARDA! And what a comfort to Heather but also “doing good” for autoimmune cham pions in Congress to lead legislative efforts for autoimmune disease research and awareness. Actions include providing them with regular updates on new treatments, and determination of the disease.

At the heart of all self-facilitating organizations is a strategy. Practical marketers under the tutelage of AARDA leaders are in all day planning activities. The updated Operational Plan for FY 2012, was approved by AARDA leaders. We plan, within one year, to significantly increase our own success of AARDA’s Strategic Plan 2013-2018. That would mean a Four Star Charity rating from Charity Navigator and has a Four Star Charity rating from Charity Navigator.
